

CHAPTER 181.

ROYAL WEST AFRICAN FRONTIER FORCE
(SUPPLEMENTARY RESERVE SIERRA LEONE).Rules
11 of 1939.

RULES

made by the Governor in Council under section 20.

Citation.

1. These rules may be cited as the Royal West African Frontier Force (Supplementary Reserve Sierra Leone) Rules.

Definition.

2. In these rules—

“The Military Forces of the Crown” means British Forces, Dominion Forces, and Colonial Forces.

Applications for enrolment.

3. (1) Applications for enrolment in the Supplementary Reserve shall be made to the Officer Commanding the Sierra Leone Regiment.

(2) The Officer Commanding the Sierra Leone Regiment will, on receipt of an application to enrol, forward to the applicant the form S.L.B.R.1. set out in the schedule hereto which will be filled in and returned by the applicant to the Officer Commanding.

Promotion of officers.

4. The promotion of officers in the Supplementary Reserve shall be regulated as follows—

(1) A second lieutenant before promotion to lieutenant—shall have served three years as an officer in any of the Military Forces of the Crown or in an Imperial Reserve of Officers or in the Supplementary Reserve; and be recommended for such promotion by his commanding officer.

(2) A lieutenant before promotion to captain—shall have six years' service as an officer in any of the Military Forces of the Crown or in an Imperial Reserve of Officers or in the Supplementary Reserve; shall have passed the practical examination in subject (a) as laid down in Territorial Army Regulations, for lieutenants of the Territorial Army, and be recommended by his commanding officer.

(3) A captain before promotion to major—shall have eight years' service as an officer in any of the Military Forces of the Crown or in an Imperial Reserve of Officers or in the Supplementary Reserve of which five years shall have been served in the rank of captain; shall have passed the practical examination in subject (c) as laid down in Territorial Army Regulations for captains of the Territorial Army, and be recommended by his commanding officer:

Provided that, in any special case, the Governor may on the recommendation of the Officer Commanding, promote an officer to acting rank at any time before he shall have completed any of the foregoing qualifying periods of service.

5. Members of the Supplementary Reserve shall, on being called up for service, receive pay according to rank at the same scale as regular officers, British warrant and non-commissioned officers of the Sierra Leone Regiment.

Rates of pay when on service.

6. (1) Training allowance at the rate of ten shillings a day will be payable to all members of the Supplementary Reserve during periods of attachments for training or when undergoing courses of instruction.

Allowances
when training and when on service.

(2) Travelling allowance when travelling on military duty will be granted at the same rates as are laid down for the regular personnel of the Sierra Leone Regiment.

(3) Married members of the Force will, when called up for service, receive marriage allowance at the same rates as are laid down for the regular personnel of the Sierra Leone Regiment.

(4) (a) Members of the Supplementary Reserve shall on first appointment receive an outfit allowance of £20.

(b) Any member of the Supplementary Reserve who, having received the outfit allowance prescribed under sub-paragraph (a) of this rule, leaves the Force of his own volition within three years of enrolment, may be called upon to refund up to 50 per cent. of such allowance.

(c) Where any officer of the Supplementary Reserve has been or is hereafter called up for service in the Royal West African Frontier Force or with any of Her Majesty's Forces the outfit allowance payable to such officer on his being so called up shall be £30, but any payment on account of outfit allowance made to an officer in respect of his appointment as an officer in the Supplementary Reserve shall be deducted from such sum.

(5) The Commanding Officer may award a bonus, not exceeding £3 per head per annum, to any member of the Supplementary Reserve who is considered to have attained the desired state of efficiency, as decided by the Commanding Officer, in each year.

(6) Members of the Supplementary Reserve who from causes arising out of and in the course of their military duty are admitted to hospital shall receive treatment at the same rates as the regular personnel of the Sierra Leone Regiment, or if not admitted to hospital shall receive free medical treatment in their own quarters.

(7) Petrol allowances at the rate of 7s. 6d. a day will be payable to all members of the Supplementary Reserve for attendances at drills under rule 7 (2).

Training.

7. Training will take the following forms—

(1) Every member of the Supplementary Reserve shall be required to be attached to the Sierra Leone Regiment for at least seven days' training in each year.

(2) Members of the Supplementary Reserve will, in addition to the above week's attachment, be expected to attend at least one hour's training period a fortnight throughout their tour. This training will consist of drill, weapon training, section and platoon training, tactical exercises without troops and lectures.

(3) Training programmes in accordance with paragraph (2) of this rule will be prepared and circulated by the adjutant of the Supplementary Reserve.

Staff.

8. An adjutant of the Supplementary Reserve will be appointed by the Governor, and will be responsible to the Commanding Officer for the training, efficiency and interior economy of the Supplementary Reserve. The adjutant may be a regular officer of the Sierra Leone Regiment, or a member of the Supplementary Reserve, and while so employed shall receive extra duty pay at the rate of 3s. a day.

A British warrant or non-commissioned officer may be appointed by the Commanding Officer to assist the adjutant. He will be one of the regular personnel of the Sierra Leone Regiment and shall receive extra duty pay at the rate of 2s. a day while so employed.

Relation to
units.

9. Unless orders are specially issued to the contrary the officer commanding a unit or sub-unit of the Sierra Leone
