SCHEDULE.

CHAPTER 279.CHURCH MISSIONARY SOCIETY LANDS.

9 of 1905.

An Ordinance for vesting certain lands in the Colony of Sierra Leone belonging to the Church Missionary Society for Africa and the East in the Sierra Leone Church Committee.

[3RD JULY, 1905.]

Preamble.

WHEREAS the Church Missionary Society for Africa and the East (hereinafter called the Church Missionary Society) has for several years past been carrying on missionary work in the Colony of Sierra Leone and its Protectorate, and as such has become the owner of various lands situate in the Colony and Protectorate, on which churches, schools and mission houses have been built for the purpose of carrying on missionary work:

AND WHEREAS the lands aforesaid are held in trust for the Church Missionary Society by an association called the Church Missionary Trust Association, which was incorporated and registered in England in the month of May, 1885, under the Companies Acts, 1862 to 1883, and was empowered (inter alia) to hold lands of the Church Missionary Society:

AND WHEREAS for many years past the Church Missionary Society have from time to time withdrawn from portions of their missionary work in Sierra Leone, and the same has been undertaken and carried on by members of the Church of England in Sierra Leone, known as the Sierra Leone Native Church, on behalf of the Church Missionary Society:

AND WHEREAS an association of members of the Church of England in Sierra Leone, known as the Sierra Leone Church Committee, was by virtue of an Ordinance passed by the Legislative Council of this Colony on the 24th day of November, 1876, and intituled "An Ordinance to incorporate the Sierra Leone Church Committee," incorporated and empowered (inter alia) to hold land situate in this Colony not exceeding in yearly value the sum of ten thousand pounds sterling in trust for the Church of England in Sierra Leone (now known as the Sierra Leone Native Church aforesaid):

AND WHEREAS the Church Missionary Society, by a resolution passed on the ninth day of November in the year of our Lord one thousand nine hundred, has resolved to convey absolutely to the Sierra Leone Native Church all the lands of the Church Missionary Society set out in the Schedule to this Ordinance which are now vested in the Church Missionary Trust Association:

AND WHEREAS the Sierra Leone Native Church have agreed to take and hold the said lands to and for the purposes of the Church of England in Sierra Leone, and have appointed the Sierra Leone Church Committee to be their trustees in that behalf:

AND WHEREAS, in order to avoid the great expense that will be incurred in conveying so many different estates from the Church Missionary Trust Association to the Sierra Leone Church Committee, the Sierra Leone Church Committee have, on behalf of the Church Missionary Society and the Sierra Leone Native Church, presented a petition to the Governor praying that the lands described in the Schedule hereto may be vested by an Ordinance of this Colony in the Sierra Leone Church Committee in trust for the Sierra Leone Native Church:

AND WHEREAS the land described in the Schedule hereto with lands now held by the Sierra Leone Church Committee do not exceed in yearly value the sum of ten thousand pounds sterling:

AND WHEREAS it is expedient to grant the prayer of the Sierra Leone Church Committee.

1. This Ordinance may be cited as the Church Missionary Society Lands Ordinance. Short title.

Vesting of interest of Church
Missionary Society in certain lands in Church Committee.

2. All the estate, right, title, interest, claim and demand of the Church Missionary Trust Association or of the Church Missionary Society in all those pieces or parcels of land described in the Schedule to this Ordinance, together with all churches, chapels, schools and other buildings and fixtures erected thereon, and all books, papers, documents, furniture and articles, the property of the Church Missionary Society, belonging and appertaining thereto, and all easements, rights, advantages and appurtenances whatsoever to the said hereditaments appertaining or with the same or any part thereof now or heretofore held, used or enjoyed, or reputed as part thereof, or appurtenant thereto, are hereby transferred to and vested in the Sierra Leone Church Committee to and for the uses or purposes of the Church of England in Sierra Leone.

Church
Committee to take the place of Church
Missionary Trust Association as party to existing contracts.

3. All contracts, covenants and agreements heretofore made or entered into by any person or persons whomsoever with the Church Missionary Trust Association, or any person or persons on their behalf as to or concerning the lands described in the Schedule hereto, shall be deemed and taken to have been made or entered into with the Sierra Leone Church Committee, and shall be executed and enforced by the Sierra Leone Church Committee in the like manner as if the Sierra Leone Church Committee had originally been party thereto instead of the Church Missionary Trust Association, and all proceedings whatsoever which have been, or might, or may have been commenced, taken or done in the name of the Church Missionary Trust Association on behalf of the Church Missionary Society shall and may be commenced, continued, taken or done in the name of the Sierra Leone Church Committee in like manner (in the case of proceedings already commenced, taken or done) as if the Sierra Leone Church Committee had originally been party thereto instead of the Church Missionary Trust Association.

Church
Committee to be constituted according to articles of 30th January, 1890.

4. For the purposes of this Ordinance the Sierra Leone Church Committee shall be constituted in the manner provided in the Articles of Constitution approved by the Revision Committee of the Church in Sierra Leone, published and issued by the secretaries of the Church Missionary Society upon the Thirtieth day of January in the year of Our Lord one thousand eight hundred and ninety.

A copy of the said Articles and any alterations or amendments made thereto, signed by the President of the Sierra Leone Church Committee, shall be deposited, registered and kept in the office of the Registrar-General, and a copy of the said articles when duly certified by the Registrar-General shall be conclusive evidence thereof in any Court of law.

5. Nothing herein contained shall affect or be deemed to affect in any manner or way the rights of Her Majesty the Queen, Her heirs or successors, or of any body politic or corporate, or of any other person or persons, except such as are mentioned in this Ordinance and those claiming by, from or under them.

Saving of rights of the Crown, bodies politic and other persons.
